Participate in the First Annual American Indian & Alaska Native Long Term Care Conference

When: November 16-17, 2005

Where: Sheraton Old Town (soon to be Hotel Albuquerque at Old Town)
Albuquerque, NM

Website: aianlongtermcare.org

The conference will provide a forum in which tribes and AI/AN organizations engaged in the development of long term care services can:

- * Learn from each other about promising practices in sustainable long term care programs;
- * Learn about federal, state, and private resources available to help in the development of long term care services (e.g., CMS New Freedom Initiative, ANA SEDS grant program); and
- * Learn from experts in the field about specific technical issues (e.g., PACE model of care, elder day program development, personal care, and 1915c waiver programs).
